

Preface

Hannah J. Haynie and Charles B. Chang
University of California, Berkeley

The West Coast Conference on Formal Linguistics held its 26th annual meeting at the University of California, Berkeley on the 27th – 29th of April 2007. The conference was anchored by addresses from invited speakers Adam Albright, Lyn Frazier, and Manfred Krifka, and included 59 other talks chosen from a pool of nearly 350 submitted abstracts. The success of the conference – from the morning registration to the paper sessions and the Saturday evening dinner party – attests to the excellent contributions of the participants and the enthusiastic involvement of the U.C. Berkeley linguistics community and our colleagues from other institutions.

We would like to thank the Organizing Committee, which included Michael Houser, Line Mikkelsen, Ange Strom-Weber, and Maziar Toosarvandani, for all of the work they did to bring WCCFL 26 to Berkeley and to manage every aspect of the conference. We would also like to express our gratitude for the support of the faculty and staff of the Berkeley Linguistics Department and for the remarkable turnout of student volunteers. To the 200 reviewers whose careful consideration of the submissions resulted in an outstanding program and to the session chairs who kept that program on schedule we give our sincerest thanks. Finally, we would like to acknowledge the generous financial support of the University of California, Berkeley Department of Linguistics, the Dean of Arts and Humanities, the Dean of the Graduate Division, the Dean of Social Sciences, and the Doreen B. Townsend Center.

This volume contains 55 of the 62 papers that were presented at WCCFL 26 as well as three that were selected as alternates.
